

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, the volunteer counseling group known as the Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE) Association, sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration, has provided management counseling to the small business owners in the State of South Dakota and throughout the United States of America; and,

WHEREAS, this counseling service has been provided without charge and given with the sole purpose of helping businesses become more successful and profitable, as well as to encourage our citizens to become entrepreneurs, thereby helping themselves, their community and their country; and,

WHEREAS, the SCORE Association will this day counsel its two millionth client;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 9, 1987, as

SCORE SMALL BUSINESS DAY

in South Dakota, and I ask all citizens of South Dakota to share with me during this day a deep pride in the many accomplishments of our state and nation's small businessmen and women, and in the invaluable contribution SCORE has made to our free enterprise system.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
